Panther Paws should be a quick & simple food/drink station from a different vendor than Aramark. -Starbucks (or Java City) -Jamba Juice	Current location or near the new student service building / Cosmo / Tech Building would not be a bad idea.
Something other than a national chain or franchise. Perhaps a food-truck version of a local restaurant? Something that serves fresh, healthy food not too expensive, and isn't a national chain. I also wonder if there's a way to connect it up with City Farm's.	Current location
Full coffee kiosk, offering brewed as well as espresso drinks and associated snacks	Current location
Similar food as last time with some salad and sushi choices	Current location
Quick-grab setup, with premade sandwiches, salads, cookies and drinks. Perhaps a box-lunch idea.	Current location
