

>The Clubs & Events Board (C.A.E.B.) voted on Monday, February 13th to approve and support eight food selling days during each academic year. On August 15, 2011 I submitted an email message to you, Frank and Michael requesting that Student Leadership and Development's traditional campus-wide events be approved as days when clubs are permitted to sale foods. Please see the below event names and dates that were previously approved by you on August 25, 2011 (excluding April 17th 2012):

>

>

>* Constitution Day - September 15th 2011

>

>* Fall Club Day - September 22nd 2011

>

>* Arts & Crafts Faire - October 11th 13th 2011

>

>2012 Semester

>

>

>* Spring Club Day - March 1st 2012

>

>* People's Day - May 3rd 2012

>

>* Student Elections - April 17th 2012 (this would be the 8th food selling day)

>

>Please keep in mind that all of these dates are not concrete and will change each academic year. I will work with my coordinator to schedule the 2012-2013 SLD events calendar during the summer break and forward it to you after our requested event dates are confirmed. If you have questions regarding any of this information please feel free to contact me.

Aramark Support:

- Provide food products to support a club event at 'cost + 15%'. If practical, Aramark to manage the required inventory of product and charge for what is used if a common menu item (e.g. hamburgers for bar-b-q type event).
- Provide short course in food safety for club members designated to work a given fund raising event.
- Provide monitoring of the event to ensure food safety concerns are being addressed.
